JODY W. CAMPBELL
CIRCUIT CLERK

MOTION TO AMEND BOND

Comes now the Defendant, by and through his counsel of record, and moves this Honorable Court to amend the bond conditions in the instant case to relieve Defendant of the electronic monitoring requirement and as grounds would show unto the Court as follows:

1. The Defendant is a self employed website designer. He works out of his home over a DSL line. Insights' monitoring program cannot operate with a DSL in place.

2. Neil Holcombe of the of the Baldwin County Sheriff's Departments Drug Task Force is the case agent. Mr. Holcombe has no objection to the removal of monitoring. Mr. Holcombe did not recommend the monitoring and states that it is not of any use in this matter.

3. Defendant avers that the requirement of electronic monitoring would be a hardship for him and will inhibit his ability to remain gainfully employed.

Mike PyCent Oct.

WHEREFORE, your Defendant prays this Honorable Court will amend the bond in the instant matter to relieve the requirement of electronic monitoring and for all other relief he may be entitled, the premises considered.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL P. MITCHELL (MIT026)
Attorney for Defendant
